

NeuroProductivity Expert, Keynote Speaker, Transformation Coach

As the premier expert in NeuroProductivity, Susanna's informative, innovative, and inspiring presentations helps leaders, teams, and organizations get remarkably more done doing less. With enthusiasm, storytelling, and a refreshingly new approach to productivity, Susanna's keynotes and workshop trainings have consistently helped leaders and teams of all sizes see an immediate boost in focus, energy, productivity, and performance.

Susanna helps people discover what their greatest asset, their brain, needs to function at full capacity. With simple, easy-to-understand principles and strategies, you'll discover how to tackle challenges like overwhelm, focus, stress, distractions, and information overload. Be prepared to laugh out loud, see immediate results, and leave with a proven roadmap that increases productivity, engagement, and profits significantly.

Susanna is the founder and CEO of Get Brainiac Smart. She is certified in Foundations for NeuroLeadership by David Rock's NeuroLeadership Institute and has been honored by the Academy of Brain Health & Performance to be appointed as an ambassador.

When she's not connecting with audiences from the stage, she's working with leaders and organizational change agents as a coach, helping them identify their ideal vision for themselves and their organization and discover how to overcome the patterns that keep them stuck. Susanna is an ICF accredited Gestalt certified coach and NeuroProductivity specialist.

Before she was helping others understand how to boost their brainpower, Susanna was a set decorator in film and television. Susanna was the original set decorator of "Sex & the City." When a side effect of brain surgery caused debilitating migraines, Susanna applied neuroscience strategies to help her keep up with her responsibilities and discovered that she was suddenly getting twice as much done in half the time. The new information from neuroscience revolutionized her life. Her mission is to inform business people that they can get remarkably more done, in less time, with less stress.
